

KIC-UT Texas Austin Internship Program

Any of you who have interests is invited to apply for the internship program of Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs, University of Texas at Austin. Applicants will be evaluated by interview and selected one student for this program. If you want to apply, please submit the internship application form to kic@khu.ac.kr.

1. Qualifications

- Currently attending KIC

2. The number of final selection: 1 student

3. Duration: During Summer vacation, 2015 (about two months)

4. Place: Texas, in the United States

5. Internship Organization: Organizations related to International Relation issues (it will be hosted by UT, paid internship can be found)

6. Expense: apply for internship financial support after the completion of the internship

7. Deadline for Application: TBA

For more information, please contact KIC office.

Administration Office

College of International Studies